SUBJECT

Training of Raja of Narasingarh in the administration of his State.

CB-1336

THE RESIDENCY,
BANGALORE.

CONFIDENTIAL.

No. C/4999/885.

15th February 1927.

Dear Mr. Ismail,

The Agent to the Governor General in Central India has written to ask whether the Mysore Government would be good enough to instruct and help the Raja of Narsingarh in furthering his training in the administration of his State.

The Raja is finishing his diploma course at the Mayo College in April, and it is then proposed to give him a holiday in Ootacamund. After that he is to be given a training in administration, and since the only training possible in British India is so very elementary, it is likely to be of little value as a preparation for the government of a State.

Would you let me know if His Highness' Government would kindly agree to help in this matter?

Yours sincerely,

C. Secy

I think we may agree to this proposal, which is a compliment to the State. A reply may be drafted by R. Telling him that we think it perhaps to afford the Raja all possible facilities in learning administrative work.

Mirza Mohd. Ismail Esq., C.I.E., O.B.E.,

I beg to submit copy of Confidential D.O. letter No.C. 4999/885 dated the 15th February 1927, from the Hon'ble the Resident in Mysore, enquiring whether His Highness' Government would be good enough to instruct and help the Raja of Narasingarh in furthering his training in the administration of his State. Narasingarh is one of the States of Central India with an area of 734 sq. miles and a population of over 1 lakh. His Highness the Raja of this State is entitled to a salute of 11 guns. It is complimentary to our State that it has been selected for the training of a Ruling Prince in administrative work. I have replied that His Highness' Government would be happy to afford all possible facilities to the Raja.

The papers are submitted to His Highness for gracious perusal and approval of action taken.

Dear Sir Mirza,

Will you please refer to the correspondence ending with your confidential D.O. No. 2000, dated the 17th February 1927, regarding the training of the Raja of Narsingarh in the Administration of his State?

The Agent to the Governor-General in Central India has asked me to convey to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore his very sincere thanks for their kind offer of assistance in this matter.

The present intention is that the Raja of Narsingarh should spend at least a year over his administrative training in Mysore.

As regards the course of training, the Raja does not know Canarese and his training will have to be confined to courts and offices using English. Of course, in the case of village records, an interpreter would help him.

The Hon'ble Mr. Glancy suggested that he should spend two hours a day in the courts for at least a month, beginning with lower courts and gradually working up to the High Court. He should also put in a few hours every day in offices of the more important Departments of the State, if this could be satisfactorily arranged by the Mysore Government. In his spare time at home, it is suggested that he should study departmental reports and statistics. Finally, if it is possible to arrange, he might see something of district administration under a good Collector for two months and get some knowledge of revenue, police, local funds works, co-operative credit etc. etc.

These proposals are only tentative and the Resident would be greatly obliged if you could now suggest a programme for the Raja's training.

The Raja will probably arrive in Bangalore sometime between the 15th June and the 1st July, but I will let you know as soon as the exact date is fixed.

I am arranging for the necessary house accommodation.

Yours

C. Kleas
